

Yacht Racing Union of Southern California

27492 Capricho ✕ Mission Viejo, CA 92692

DEED OF GIFT

YACHTSWOMAN EXCELLENCE AWARD

The award established by this Deed of Gift shall be known as the YACHTSWOMAN EXCELLENCE AWARD. This award shall be presented annually to an outstanding female sailor for her performance as a racing skipper. The following requisites shall govern this deed:

1. This award shall not be presented to more than one person in any calendar year.
2. The recipient must be a resident of Southern California and reside in this area during the year for which the award is being presented.
3. Sailing achievements recognized may be on a local, national or international level and nominee must have sailed in an amateur status during the period covered by the award.
4. The recipient need not be affiliated with a member club of YRUSC, but in order to maintain interest in the trophy, the recipient's yacht club shall give the perpetual trophy prominent display at its facilities. Should the recipient not belong to a yacht club which has such facilities, the perpetual trophy shall be displayed at a yacht club having been designated by the Flag Officers of YRUSC which has the necessary facilities.
5. This award shall consist of a perpetual trophy. This trophy is directed into the charge of YRUSC, which shall be responsible for providing a suitable take-home trophy. Said take-home trophy shall show the name of the winner, the year awarded and the full name of the perpetual trophy.
6. The recipient or her yacht club will at all times provide insurance coverage of the perpetual trophy which provides total and complete coverage for the replacement of said trophy in the case of loss due to theft, fire or damage of any kind. This coverage must be maintained at all times that said perpetual trophy is in the recipient's possession.
7. The time, date and place for trophy presentation shall be prescribed in the annual application form. However, the Commodore of YRUSC, or his designee, may deem it appropriate to make a presentation at an Opening Day ceremony or other function at the winner's club.
8. Nominations shall be submitted on the official forms supplied to YRUSC clubs. Each completed application must be supported by suitable resumes or letters outlining the nominee's qualifications for this award. The application must also be signed by a Flag Officer of the submitting club.
9. The recipient or appropriate club officer shall sign a "Recipient Agreement," provided by a YRUSC representative by which it shall engage and bind himself/herself to hold the perpetual trophy subject to the above terms and conditions.
10. Full authority over this Deed of Gift is vested in the Flag Officers of YRUSC and all action concerning this deed shall be voted on under the provisions set forth in the organization's bylaws.

Yacht Racing Union of Southern California

27492 Capricho ✕ Mission Viejo, CA 92692

DEED OF GIFT

YACHTSMAN EXCELLENCE AWARD

The award established by this Deed of Gift shall be known as the YACHTSMAN EXCELLENCE AWARD. This award shall be presented annually to an outstanding male sailor for his performance as a racing skipper. The following requisites shall govern this deed:

1. This award shall not be presented to more than one person in any calendar year.
2. The recipient must be a resident of Southern California and reside in this area during the year for which the award is being presented.
3. Sailing achievements recognized may be on a local, national or international level and nominee must have sailed in an amateur status during the period covered by the award.
4. The recipient need not be affiliated with a member club of YRUSC, but in order to maintain interest in the trophy, the recipient's yacht club shall give the perpetual trophy prominent display at its facilities. Should the recipient not belong to a yacht club which has such facilities, the perpetual trophy shall be displayed at a yacht club having been designated by the Flag Officers of YRUSC which has the necessary facilities.
5. This award shall consist of a perpetual trophy. This trophy is directed into the charge of YRUSC, which shall be responsible for providing a suitable take-home trophy. Said take-home trophy shall show the name of the winner, the year awarded and the full name of the perpetual trophy.
6. The recipient or his yacht club will at all times provide insurance coverage of the perpetual trophy which provides total and complete coverage for the replacement of said trophy in the case of loss due to theft, fire or damage of any kind. This coverage must be maintained at all times that said perpetual trophy is in the recipient's possession.
7. The time, date and place for trophy presentation shall be prescribed in the annual application form. However, the Commodore of YRUSC, or his designee, may deem it appropriate to make a presentation at an Opening Day ceremony or other function at the winner's club.
8. Nominations shall be submitted on the official forms supplied to YRUSC clubs. Each completed application must be supported by suitable resumes or letters outlining the nominee's qualifications for this award. The application must also be signed by a Flag Officer of the submitting club.
9. The recipient or appropriate club officer shall sign a "Recipient Agreement," provided by a YRUSC representative by which it shall engage and bind himself/herself to hold the perpetual trophy subject to the above terms and conditions.
10. Full authority over this Deed of Gift is vested in the Flag Officers of YRUSC and all action concerning this deed shall be voted on under the provisions set forth in the organization's bylaws.

Yacht Racing Union of Southern California

27492 Capricho X Mission Viejo, CA 92692

DEED OF GIFT – YOUTH EXCELLENCE AWARD

The award established by this Deed of Gift shall be known as the YOUTH EXCELLENCE AWARD. This award shall be presented annually to an outstanding youth sailor for his or her performance as a racing skipper. The following requisites shall govern this deed:

1. This award shall not be presented to more than one person in any calendar year.
2. The recipient must be a resident of Southern California and reside in this area during the year for which the award is being presented.
3. The recipient will not have exceeded his or her 21st birthday prior to the last day in December for the year the award is being presented.
4. Excellence in competition ability should not be the sole, or even the major, factor considered in the candidate's qualifications. Contributions to sailing activities, citizenship, integrity and social attitudes should be taken into consideration. Sailing achievements recognized may be on a local, national or international level and nominee must have sailed in an amateur status during the period covered by the award.
5. The recipient need not be affiliated with a member club of YRUSC, but in order to maintain interest in the trophy, the recipient's yacht club shall give the perpetual trophy prominent display at its facilities. Should the recipient not belong to a yacht club that has such facilities, the perpetual trophy shall be displayed at a yacht club having been designated by the Flag officers of YRUSC that has the necessary facilities.
6. This award shall consist of a perpetual trophy. This trophy is directed into the charge of YRUSC, which shall be responsible for providing a suitable take-home trophy. Said take-home trophy shall show the name of the winner, the year awarded and the full name of the perpetual trophy.
7. The recipient, or his/her yacht club, will at all times provide insurance coverage of the perpetual trophy which provides total and complete coverage for the replacement of said perpetual trophy in the case of loss due to theft, fire or damage of any kind. This coverage must be maintained at all times that said perpetual trophy is in the recipient's possession.
8. The time, date and place for trophy presentation shall be prescribed in the annual application form. However, the Commodore of YRUSC, or his designee, may deem it appropriate to make a presentation at an opening day ceremony or other function at the winner's club.
9. Nominations shall be submitted on the official forms supplied to YRUSC clubs. Each completed application must be supported by suitable resumes or letters outlining the nominee's qualifications for this award. The application must all be signed by a Flag Officer of the submitting club.
10. The recipient or appropriate club officer shall sign a "Recipient Agreement," provided by a YRUSC representative, by which it shall engage and bind himself/herself to hold the perpetual trophy subject to the within terms and conditions.
11. Full authority over the Deed of Gift is vested in the Flag Officers of YRUSC and all action concerning this deed shall be voted on under the provisions set forth in the organization's bylaws.

Yacht Racing Union of Southern California

27492 Capricho X Mission Viejo, CA 92692

DEED OF GIFT

YACHTING SERVICE EXCELLENCE AWARD

The award established by this Deed of Gift shall be known as the YACHTING SERVICE EXCELLENCE AWARD. This award shall be presented to recognize recipients for outstanding service to yachting in areas other than as a racing skipper. The following shall govern this deed:

1. This award may recognize service including but not limited to individuals, business firms, boating groups or governmental bodies which have performed services to yachting beyond the recipient's normal obligations.
2. This award may be presented to more than one recipient each year, but not more than six shall be named in a single year. The YRUSC Awards Committee may also elect not to present the award to insure care is taken to preserve the integrity, prestige, and significance of the honor being tendered.
3. The services being recognized need not be accomplished in the year of the award. Candidates who have performed services to yachting over a sustained period shall be considered more logical recipients; however, it is recognized that there may be exceptions. It is the intent of this deed to elect nominees for, but not limited to, service in race management, teaching, youth work and other contributions of time and talent.
4. The recipient need not be affiliated with a member club of YRUSC, but in order to maintain interest in the trophy, the recipient's yacht club shall give the perpetual trophy prominent display at its facilities. Should the recipient not belong to a yacht club which has such facilities, the perpetual trophy shall be displayed at a yacht club having been designated by the Flag Officers of YRUSC which has the necessary facilities.
5. This award shall consist of a perpetual trophy. This trophy is directed into the charge of YRUSC, which shall be responsible for providing a suitable take-home trophy. Said take-home trophy shall show the name of the winner, the year awarded and the full name of the perpetual trophy.
6. The recipient or his/her yacht club will at all times provide insurance coverage of the perpetual trophy which provides total and complete coverage for the replacement of said trophy in the case of loss due to theft, fire or damage of any kind. This coverage must be maintained at all times that said perpetual trophy is in the recipient's possession.
7. The time, date and place for trophy presentation shall be prescribed in the annual application form. However, the Commodore of YRUSC or his designee, may deem it appropriate to make the presentation at an Opening Day ceremony or other function at the winner's club.
8. Nominations should be submitted on the official forms supplied to YRUSC clubs. Each completed application must be supported by suitable resumes or letters outlining the nominee's qualifications for this award. The application must also be signed by a Flag Officer of the submitting club.
9. The recipient or appropriate club officer shall sign a "Recipient Agreement," provided by a YRUSC representative by which it shall engage and bind himself/herself to hold the perpetual trophy subject to the above terms and conditions.
10. Full authority over this Deed of Gift is vested in the Board of Directors of YRUSC and all action concerning this deed should be voted on under the provisions set forth in the organization's bylaws.